SUCCESSORS TO SUTTON & HARRIS.

ARE NOW INSTALLED IN THEIR NEW QUARTERS

BIG STOCK OF

FURNITURE

Equal to the large city houses. Fine line of Carpets and all goods that go with them.

Undertaking.

A regular Undertaking room is being fitted up for this department.

Public Sale.

If not previously sold privately I will at one o'clock at the court house steps on Monday February 19th, 1906, county court day, offer at public sale to the highest bidder, my farm containing one hundred and thirty two acres of land lying one and one-half miles south of Mt. Sterling, with levee turning dividing same into two tracts of 45 acres each. I shall let the 45 acres with two and a pair of stock scales on one side of the pike, then the 87 well improved land, all and necessary conveniences and milk house, cemented in and outside at kitchen door, new stock barn and splendid young orchard of five kinds of fruit.

This is one of the best located and best watered farms in the State, watered by seven springs. I will then offer farm as a whole, the highest bid being taken.

Terms, one-third cash, and balance in one and two years from date of sale, deferred payment to bear 6 per cent, per annum interest, and to be secured by a lien retained upon the property. Purchasers will be permitted to pay as much cash as they desire.

John A. Renault.

Bank Consolidation.

A special from Morehead says: Many changes are being made in banking circles in Eastern Kentucky. M. Paxton Davis, formerly cashier of the Bank of Morehead, is now cashier of the Deposit Bank at Jackson to succeed J. S. Head, Jr., who became cashier of a new bank at Chattanooga, Tenn. W. J. Rice, formerly cashier of the Olive Hill National Bank, has purchased a controlling interest in the Bank of Morehead, having already had a controlling interest in the Lenora National Bank of Morehead. He is now cashier of the Bank of Morehead, and will effect a consolidation of these two bank making one strong central bank here. Mr. Rice will move here where he formerly resided when editor of the Advance Kentuckian here. There is general satisfaction over this move, as it relieves the situation here considerably, making for harmony and for a united community.

Mr. Rice will be succeeded as cashier of the Olive Hill National Bank by Cashier G. H. Burley, of the Bank of Willard. Assistant Cashier C. V. Fitch will be promoted to take Mr. Burley's place.

This is a remarkable case of changes made necessary by the promotion of one man, Mr. J. S. Head, to a larger field at Chattanooga. The Head Brothers, of Burgin, have sold their interests in the Bank of Morehead to W. J. Rice.

FLEMINGSBURG DRUGGIST WILL PAY FINE AND COSTS.

He Also Agrees To Quit Business There.

The cases against Dr. H. C. Kehoe, druggist, of Flemingsburg, Ky., charged with violating local option laws, have been compromised. Kehoe agrees to pay sixty dollars fine and the costs in fifteen cases, and fifteen additional cases are docketed against him with judgment suspended, but to be enforced and operative should he violate the agreement reached, which is as follows:

"He is never again to enter into the business of a druggist, directly or indirectly, alone or in partnership with another, actively or silently, by himself or agent, or in any manner in the county of Fleming, nor in any way or manner sell, barter, give, lend or traffic in any spirituous, vinous or malt liquors, nor is he to engage in the drug business or to engage in the drug or whisky business."

By failure to keep the agreement, Dr. Kehoe would forfeit to the Commonwealth of Kentucky the sum of two thousand dollars which is secured by bond. The agreements are signed by A. H. Lindsey, chairman of the Law and Order League; A. S. Kendall, County Attorney, and Dr. H. C. Kehoe. The compromise is the first of its kind in the State.

The immovable heart moyea the world.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

FOR CONGRESS.

We are authorized to announce Judge H. C. G.
McKee is a candidate for Congress from the Tenth District of Kentucky. He is a member of the Republican party, in convention or otherwise.

Mt. Sterling has the largest live stock Court day sales of any city in Kentucky.

A railroad will be started out from Morehead soon, its destination is Morgan county coal fields.

Mt. Sterling is the proper place for a State Normal School, and a little pull would bring it our way.

An effort of our people all together will not only secure several electric railroads, but another steam railway.

If the waterworks people would join with our people in presenting the good side of Mt. Sterling, much more would be accomplished.

There are several persons in and around Mt. Sterling who are in the poultry business on a large scale and all of them are making it profitable.

Mt. Sterling water plant is as good as there is in the State, and the company will contract at a low rate for water for power or any other use.

The parties proposing to construct the electric railroad from Paris through North Middletown to Mt. Sterling, propose losing no time in getting to work.

Monday is County Court day,
also the beginning of Circuit Court. We would be pleased to meet every subscriber of the Advocate at its office on that day.

A Noted Hunter.

We clip the following from the News of Frenchburg:

Geo. E. Long sends in the following report of the game he killed during the gaming season of 1905: Racoons 2, Groundhogs 6, Pheasants 16, Gray squirrels 35, Rabbits 18, total number of all which is 79. This beats any game report yet brought in this year. See 'em Tige!

LETTER TO ADVOCATE READERS

W. S. Lloyd Guarantees Hyomei to Cure Cataract or It Costs Nothing.

Editor of the Advocate:— In view of the prevalence of cataract troubles at this season of the year, I want to tell your readers that I have never sold anything that gave more satisfaction than Hyomei, when used in cataract troubles. You get immediate relief from the treatment, and consistent use will prove to every sufferer, as it has to many of our customers, the virtue of this preparation.

The complete Hyomei outfit consists of a pocket inhaler, a medicine dropper, and a bottle of Hyomei, and the price is only $1., while additional bottles can be obtained for 50 cents.

I positively guarantee a cure when Hyomei is used in accordance with directions, or I will refund your money. This certainly shows our faith and belief in the virtues of Hyomei.

Yours very truly,

Jan-10-1906. W. S. Lloyd.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Plum Lick.

Born to John Reid and wife, a son.

James Kendall sold 20,000 lbs.
of tobacco to French at 8 cents a pound.

Joe Booth has bought several crops of tobacco in this neighborhood at 8 and 10¢.

James Bryant, who evidently disappeared, was found lying on his back in a small stream of water dead. It is supposed his heart failed. He had been dead several days.

It takes $1,000,000.00 per year to keep the people of the United States in whiskey, and still there are millions of them, going about complaining that they are us, dry as fish.

One little black skunk, not as large as a rabbit, was before a drive of a thousand sheep and trot off. In like manner one longtongued gossip can stir up a whole town, or neighborhood, and be-smear the fair characters in it; and trot off unheeded. Of the two, we would rather be the skunk, for the long-tongued tattling gossip is sure of hell, while the skunk is not.

STOOPS.

Most farmers are through stripping tobacco.

Gripe seems to be epidemic in this neighborhood.

John Still has been seriously ill with stomach trouble.

Tom Coons left last week on a prospecting tour through Southern Texas.

W. H. Bridges has been quite sick. "quire John Steel is slowly improving.

Mrs. T. N. Coons, of Bourbon county is with relatives here.

A. W. Ryd was at Winchester
last week.

McClain & Alexander sold a crop of tobacco to Robertson & Stone, of Bethel, for 10¢ and 3¢ per pound. Ryd & Fassett sold their crop of tobacco to Kirkpatrick for 7¢ cents.

Bert Saunders and wife spent last week with relatives in Fleming county.

Thomas Wren and sister, Miss Bertie, of Salt Lick, have been with their parents, B. C. Wren and wife.

J. F. Grooms was at Plum Lick

Weak Lungs
Bronchitis

For over sixty years doctors have endorsed Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for coughs, colds, weak lungs, bronchitis, consumption. You can trust a medicine the best doctors approve. Then trust this the next time you have a sore cough.

I had an awful cough for over a year and nothing would stop it, any good Ayer's Cherry Pectoral and was soon cured.
I am sure you will be pleased to know they have a cough.—Miss M. M. Ayers,

WAYS OF AMATEUR SLEUTH

Rival of Sherlock Holmes Tries to Tracing Burglar—Follow Board
ers Are Real Culprits.

"We have a young professional lurking out there who imagines himself a second Sherlock Holmes," said the star boarder to the New Orleans Times Democrat. "No matter how deep the mystery presented in the columns of the daily press, invariably at the breakfast table he is ready with a solution. He is a doctor of medicine, and I must confess that he is bright beyond his years, but he has not yet developed to a point where he can give our old friend Sherlock a run for his cash. But to the story. The doctor sleeps in his office, which occupies a room on the lower floor of our boarding house. The other evening he was suddenly called away on professional business. Several of us boarders were seated on the gallery.
It was noticed that the doctor,
in his rush to go to his patient, neglected to turn off the gas. This always drew a scowl from the landlady. I volunteered to turn off the jet, but discovered that both the front and rear doors leading to the office of the doctor were locked. One of the boys suggested that I climb through the window. I did so. When I reached the inside I invited one of the other boarders to follow me and have a glimpse at the doctor's mode of housekeeping. The idea struck me that we could have some fun by turning the room upside down and making it appear that burglars had been busy during the doctor's absence. We emptied his armoire, throwing the clothes in the middle of the floor, and ransacked the drawers of his desk. The room was a sight when we doused the gas and departed. The next morning at the breakfast table the doctor said he had been robbed. One of the men asked him if he missed anything.
'No,' he said, 'they soon found they had gotten in the quarters of a poor man. They were after money, and when they could not find any they took revenge by throwing all my clothes and effects over the floor.' 'Have you any clew?' inquired the boarder who had always pretended belief in the doctor's ability to fathom mysteries.
'Yes,' was the reply, and the young professional man knitted his eyebrows and centered his options on a fly that was creeping up the wall. There was only one fly low impeded. I traced him only this morning, shortly after day break, as far as the front gate by his footstep. There I lost track of him when he stepped on the brick banquette. You see, in leaving the premises he walked on the ground, in order that his footsteps might not be heard. But I have the size of his shoe, and may get him yet.' Of course, we all told the doctor that we hoped he would bring the scoundrel to justice.
But thus far he has failed to do so."

Superstitions of Burglars.

[A writer who has been investigating the subject of superstition among burglars gives it as his conclusion that no burglar will "crack" a house where a female servant that squints is kept. If a burglar sees three different houses slip down in a day he will not work that night. One Englishman in the dock confessed that members of his profession would never
"burglare" houses with the numbers 22, 93, 111 and 444.

Preferred a Novice.

That man must have been a bit of a wise guy when advertising in a matrimonial paper for "a nice young girl, of affectionate disposition, willing to make a good looking bachelor happy," added the words: "Previous experience not necessary."—Chicago Journal.

Was Sure of It.

"No, ma doesn't need a mop," said little Johnny to the man at the door.

"How do you know?" asked the agent.

"Because," said Johnny, "she wipes the floor with me!"—Detroit Free Press.

Professionally Considered.

"Public opinion is a great power," remarked the earnest citizen.
"Yes," answered Mr. Dustin Stax, "a great deal may be done with it. The trouble is that it is so hard to capitalize."—Washington Star.

TO BOWL THE PROPER WAY

Method Is Suggested of Getting Beneficial Exercise Out of the Sport.

Nothing is right simply because it is old. In fact, the more antique a thing or method is, the greater the probability that it is wrong. We put ourself on the back and call ours the age of improvements, but every age has been called that, and the people thereof have prided themselves accordingly, says the Brooklyn Eagle. We ridicule the Chinese for being led up to the false methods and superstitions of their forefathers, but many of our superstitions and methods are just as ridiculous. This is true in a marked degree in the case of two of our sports. We saddle and ride the race horse as did the old foggies of 200 years ago, when a little common sense applied to the subject would make any horse five pounds faster than he is under the present antiquated system. Take also the game of bowling. For some hundreds of years this always popular game has been played in a manner to produce the minimum results so far as the chief purpose of the game is concerned, which is to provide healthful exercise.

By the method which is about to be suggested bowling will provide exercise as perfect as rowing or bicycle riding, and probably the very best exercise to be had indoors. As to the minor purpose of the game, the development of skill in the scoring of points, the new method will, with the same amount of practice, result in even greater proficiency than has been attained in the old. Furthermore, a perfect sphere may be used, while now it is necessary to bore holes in the ball for the insertion of the fingers. The proper method of rolling the ball is as follows: The player toes the chalk line, standing square with the alley, with his feet well apart. He takes the ball between the palms of his hands, and in order to hold it thus brings into play every muscle of fingers, hands and forearms. He then raises the ball up over his head, naturally keeping it in the central line of his body, inhales a full breath, swings it downward and backward with his legs as far as his arms will reach and, leaning well backward, discharges it with great force, the impact of the discharge throwing him back into an upright position. Bowling in this way brings into play every muscle of the body from the tips of the fingers to the toes.

CERNE GIANT DISAPPEARING

Interesting Survival of Prehistoric England Rapidly Descending Into Native Oblivion.

An interesting survival of prehistoric England is threatened with destruction owing to neglect. This is the "Cerne Giant," a colossal human figure cut out on the side of a lofty hill that overlooks the picturesque village of Cerne Abbas, eight miles north of Dorchester.

It is several years since the furrows which outline the giant's figure were scoured and refined with chalk. Gradually the latter has been washed away by the winter's rains and it is now barely visible. Grass has so encroached on the channels that, seen from a distance, the details of the gigantic figure are hard to trace, though the uncouth human form is still recognizable. The cost of renovating the giant is estimated at about £12, but no one in the locality knows where the money is to come from.

The "Old Man," as he is styled by the natives of Cerne Abbas (the "Abbot's Cernel" of Hurdy's West-Saxon novels), is built on truly heroic lines. He stands 180 feet high and his right hand grasps a knotted club 121 feet long. The unknown artist had his own notions of the just proportions of the human frame, as will be seen from the following further measurements: Length of head, 77 feet; legs, 80 feet; head, 22 feet; right arm, 109 feet; nose, 6 feet; diameter of eye, 24 feet.

The antiquity of the figure is accepted by all archaeologists. Most authorities ascribe it to the Celtic period, while some have held that it represents an idol once worshipped by the pagan West Saxons. Another view is that it was the work of the monks of the then newly-found Benedictine Abbey of Cerne.

Blue Sapphires Are to Be found in the Far West—Montana Has Amethyst.

According to George F. Kuns, mineral expert, among most valuable gems found in west are beautiful blue sapphires from Yogo gulch, Fernwood, Mont. These present a contrast to the varied yellow, brown, blue,
etc.—of those found
in Montana. Mon-

Agate comes from Kern

County, Cal, and charming green

topaz from Visalia, Tulare

County, Cal, where the finest examples of this material found on the American continent have been mined in some quantity.

Of

interest is the compact greenish-yellow

mineral, greenish-yellow mineral, being almost as tough and beautiful in color as the best gold. Another beautiful green mineral is stilbite, a gem stone peculiar to Utah. It is a rich golden green stone, slightly translucent.

It is a striking circumstance that where the west and east

meet — in Japan and in California — should be found such masses of transparent rock crystal, from which can be cut those wonderful balls which the collectors of the world have always obtained with such delight from

Japan. Calaveras county, Cal, produces great masses of this material that cut rock crystal balls measuring from 2½ to 5½ inches in diameter.

Southern California is fast becoming known as one of the most remarkable gem regions in the world. San Diego county produces splendid tourmalines from rful gems that weigh up to 30

carats each — red, green, yellow, from pale pink to dark rich blue.

Fine topaz crystal of light blue continent has produced. Beryl comes from the same region.

Wyoming furnishes moss agate, and New Mexico turquoise and garnets. From Arizona come wonderfully beautiful malachite mines, also chrysocolla.

Pure Water Helps Engines.

People may be willing to drink impure water, but they are not willing to offer it to their locomotives.

Purified water results in sure economy, and excellent business returns from the view point of the locomotive operations, and also relieves the shops and round-houses of a vast amount of work, which increases the weight of locomotives and the increased demand upon them. Although the first cost is large, returns are so prompt and so liberal that to do without water purification is pronounced folly.

A Foreign Missionary Rally was held at the Christian Church in Ashland, Ky., on last Friday, conducted by S. J. Corey, of Cincinnati, one of the Secretaries. Afternoon and evening sessions were held. The attendance was small. The speakers were the Secretary, Rev. White and Disney, of Huntington, W. Va.; R. B. Neal, of Givingson; Prof. E. W. McDowell, of Morehead, and B. W. Trimble, of Mt. Sterling.

The meeting was more instructive and interesting by reason of numerous maps and charts showing field of missionary labor and statistics.

The following will repay a careful reading:

The Foreign Christian Missionary Society supports: 466 Workers, 40 Colleges and Schools and 18 Hospitals.

In the Non-Christian world there is one ordained Missionary to every 183,675 people.

In the United States one for every 546 people.

According to best evidence there is in the Christian Church 7284 congregations. Of these, 834 contribute to the foreign work, and 4,450 do not so contribute. (This is a statement which we regret to make. Every congregation should have a part in this work.)

The following shows the progress made in some lines, including number of Churches, Sunday School and Workers

A Living Link church is one which supports its own worker on the Foreign Field. There are 11 such congregations.

On a large map of the world these Living Links were represented by 71 red cords leading from a common center in the United States to Foreign lands.

The writer's subject was "The Development of a Missionary Conscience."

During our stay in Ashland the Secretary and the writer were guests in the home of Mr. Millard Carr, conductor on the Lexington division of the C. & O. railroad. We regretted that Mr. Carr was away from home. We have pleasant memory of the fellowship and hospitality.

Cullen, relative to affairs of the Winton Lumber Company which recently failed.

J. W. Riley, who has been temporary receiver, was elected trustee.

Theatrical Absentee.

So far as I know when one joins any of our evangelical churches the obligation taken includes staying away from theatrical performances. Any true Christian will be true to his vows. Why any want to prove false I do not know. As to the character of the plays and players, I have never witnessed a play, but I have good authority that plays of this age are the most corrupt in history. The women who live themselves out to be exposed on the stage like the public bill boards indicate can not be proper characters to teach the public mind, no matter if their play contains the truths of a chapter in the Bible. Theater lover and goes to me that those women in theater costumes would not be decent in their parlors entertaining company. Then why is it that they are not considered indecent on the stage. Strange logic; a free show not decent, but when you pay for it is O. K. The men who perform on the stage are surely no better than the women. How would it suit you for your pastor to play tragedy on the stage one night, a comedy the next, be drunk in the hotel next night and then give you a moral play or a good sermon to wind up the series? Such would suit the people who go to the theater to learn moral lessons. Then why is it that they are not considered indecent on the stage.

Such would suit the people who go to the theater to learn moral lessons. Then why is it that they are not considered indecent on the stage.

INFLUENCES DRAWN.

Finally, the results—theater costumes affect the style of clothing so that some of us are not quite decent. The theater unload a great deal of ugly slang and vulgar music in the minds of the people, which corrupts social life.

They influence people to spend much money which they are not able to spare from their families and creditors and be honest.

They draw many delicate people long distances in the very worst of weather too bad to go next door to church.

They ruin the influence of all the church members who attend them. They lead thousands of souls into the whirlpool of eternal death, deceiving and corrupting—Pastor of W. Broadway Methodist Church, Louisville, Ky.

A druggist of Flemingsburg was fined in sixty different cases for the unlawful sale of whisky. He promised if a portion of the fines were omitted he would not only never disobey the revenue laws again, but would retire from the drug business. It is all bosh that in a local option town the drug stores can not be indicted for the unlawful sale of liquor, because of the lack of evidence. Do as they did at Flemingsburg, employ detectives.

It is almost incredible, yet it is true that, because of recent disease, some affecting the great life insurance companies, thousands of policy holders have permitted their policies to lapse. A sort of panic seems to have seized upon them, and it has been far more costly to them than to the insurance companies. In many instances new insurance can never be obtained, and in all cases the policy-holder has sacrificed the advantages which accumulate with time. Policy-holders are just as safe now as ever they were, and it is an act of foolishness to surrender a policy.

Want to buy a good farm to cost from $800 to $85 per acre, with about 100 acres in boundary.

Where It Wants Them

The trust has been using those big figures in an effort to keep prices down on the plan of ownership. The prices are down all right, but not on account of an overcrop. The trust seems to have the farms where it wants them, and is profiting thereby. W. Bedford Son.

W. H. Strossman served as temporary Secretary, and was elected Secretary of the company.

Four Simple Rules

Follow Them and Health, Happiness and Prosperity Will Be Yours.

If one would be healthy, happy and prosperous, follow these four simple rules: (1) Keep the bowels open every day, (2) Clean your food slowly and thoroughly, (3) Avoid indigestible foods. (4) If there are any symptoms of stomach trouble, take Mi-o-na before each meal until cured.

No matter how many years you may have suffered with stomach trouble or how worried by sleepless, nervousness, loss of appetite, furred tongue, specks before the eyes, headaches, weakness and debility, indigestion or other ills that are caused by a weak stomach, you can be cured by the faithful use of Mi-o-na.

Mi-o-na is not a fanciful experiment, it is not a patent medicine, it is not a cure-all. It is a scientific remedy recommended but for one trouble—weakness of the digestive organs. It is a permanent cure, and is sold by W. S. Lloyd under a guarantee that it costs nothing unless it does all that is claimed for it. [Jan-10-84-24]

More Like Him.

Surely as God has given us bodies with tendencies toward self-healing when injured, he has given us spirits with tendencies to become like the better presences. Finding Christ and steadily contemplating Him institute spiritual processes making us more like Him in character, yes, and even in appearance—our hearts are purer, our love more universal and helpful, our eyes and all the countenances more chaste and spiritual.

In finding Christ, we find our women, for it is he who has revealed men to each other. Our sins blind us to our opportunities for doing good, but Christ opens our eyes when he says, "Forasmuch as ye do it unto the least of these, ye have done it unto me."

DEATHS.

Boyle—St. John Boyle, a prominent lawyer of Louisville, is dead.

CORGAR—Richard Corgar, of Olympia, died of pneumonia on December 29.

On page 8 is the address of Rev. H. D. Clark at the funeral service of Rev. W. T. Tibbs.

EASLEY—On Thursday evening of last week, Robert, aged 3 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Elliott, of Pleasant Hill, Mo., died of diphtheria. His son Henry is also very sick.

HANNON—Friday evening, January 5, 1906, at 8:35 o'clock, the spirit of Miss Sarah Elizabeth (Bettie) Menden passed to her reward from her home in Shelby county. She was forty nine years old and died from a stroke of paralysis.

Funeral service was conducted at the Salem Baptist church by Rev. B. F. Hungerford, assisted by Pastor Rev. Foster, and her remains were buried in the Salem grave yard. Sister Bettie was the sixth child of Jacob and Susan F. Heden. Early in life she accepted Christ, and has followed close to him until taken to her home in the spirit land. Hera was not a life for self, but for others, the less fortunate in life, hence she employed much of her time in making useful articles and presenting them with best of wishes. She was active in church work, and it was only the day before she was stricken that she hunted up the President of the Women's Missionary Society, paid her dues and sum in advance and then as if she saw approaching dissolution, said "I will not be able to be with you regularly and earn money for this cause, but will do what I can."

She loved the church, the people of God, and with all her heart trusted in his mercies. She frequently talked of death, had no dread for it and said, "I do not mind the going, for I have more friends in that Celestial City than on this side the shore. Where ever known, there she had friends, and wherever opportunity afforded she was about her Master's work.

Misses Mary Maher and Emma Guiffey are visiting relatives in Covington.

Kent Prichard, Superintendent of Strait Creek Coal Co. Mines, was in town Monday.

Mrs. Clas Stewart of Winchester is visiting her daughter Mrs. Rog or Barnes.

E. M. Lockridge, youngest son of Chas. Lockridge, leaves this week to spend some months in Florida.

John M. Medger, of Butler, Mo., after an absence of 26 years, is with his sister, Mrs. E. D. Prewitt on Spencer.

Rev. M. G. Buckner came from Harrodsburg on Monday night and returns today accompanied by his wife and son.

Miss Nancy Lockhart, of Kiddville, and Miss Julia Cassity of Farmers, are the guest of Miss Mary Oliver.

J. A. Poplin of Pueblo Col. who has been visiting F. M. Power in Menifee county was here yesterday.

Rev. L. V. Williams of Morehead and Mr. Armstrong of Knoxville Tenn., receiver for the Lenora National Bank of Morehead were in the city Tuesday and the report from "them" is that the opening of the bank is very flattering.

Two dangers confront the New York stock market—over extension of credit and speculating of new speculation.

BIRTHS.

In this city December 28, '05, to Ollie McCormick and wife, a son.

Rubber Goods. Punch & Graves.

Social.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Chiles entered on cards on Friday evening Mrs. C. H. Bryan gave a card party on Saturday.

For Life.

At Lawrenceburg James Bast, as accessory before the fact, was given a life sentence for the murder of James York by Wm. York.

Saloons Closed.

There seems to be a determination to close saloons on Sunday. The Mayors and Chiefs of Police are acting together in Mt. Sterling, Paris, Mayville, Owensboro and other towns.

We commend our own Mayor and Chief, who will see that the laws are enforced.

Even in a great city like Cincinnati, Ohio, the law will be executed. If reports be true, Mayor Combs of Lexington, has given in to the lawless element.

Notice.

Having decided to move from Mt. Sterling, I will for 30 days sell my stock of harness and every thing at cost. Now is the chance for you to get a bargain. Spring is almost here and many will need harness. I also have a nice line of buggy robes and horse covers. Store is in Post office building. 26-4t. G. W. Thompson.

For Rent.

One furnished and one unfurnished room and a stable with buggy house. 26-4t. Mrs. Kate McNamara.

Come in Court Day and pay your accounts which are made out and ready.

Owen Laughlin & Son.

New Orleans molasses at 60 cents a gallon, Louisiana cane syrup at 75 cents a gallon, and pure maple syrup at $1.50 per gallon, 26-4t Lindsay & Green's.

Let all citizens remember the Week of Prayer service and attend each evening. See religious.

Lost—About Dec. 25 a child's locket and ring. Report to us.

Nowhere does money create a more disappointing mirage than in a moral desert.

Auctioneer.

I offer my services as auctioneer for public sales of all kinds. Satisfaction guaranteed.

W. M. Cravens,

BROWNS-BROWN.

Nelson and Cora Brown, aged 19 and 17 were married at Jeffersonville.

New Fire Department.

At an adjourned meeting of the City Council on Saturday night, the resignation of the Fire Department was requested to take effect immediately. Then the following new department was appointed: C. C. Schoeller, Jno. William, John Cline, Geo. C. Eastin, Hanley William, Wm. Beckett, Howard Brown, Edgar Wiloughby, J. W. Wilkerson, John Clue, Tom Richardson, Wesley Ginn.

We recognize some of the hardships and dangers attending men who combat with the flames. For some service rendered the compensation is meager. In fact, the thought of pay is the last consideration, the motive is public service, and for this men have sacrificed comfort, profit and even life.

There is one suggestion which we think should be made: When fire is discovered in a rear room or up stairs, let the men go to the fire instead of standing on the street and throwing water into a front window.

LAND STOCK AND CROP ITEMS.
